DEDICATION

To Mr. George Peeler

We, the staff members of the Ash-Hi-Life wish to dedicate this annual to Mr. Peeler, our sponsor, in appreciation of the faithful and tireless assistance he has given us. Without his aid this book would have been an impossibility.

Margaret I enjoyed having you on the annual staff, and I don't know how I could have got along without you. I appreciate the honor you and the rest of the staff gave me. You have been a very good student in high school and I hope you will keep up the good work in the future. I also want to thank you for doing the part of "mailman" for me. Any time I can be of help to you don't fail to call on me.

Always,

Lloyd E. Peeler

Class Diary

1937-1938

SEPTEMBER

One hundred and thirty-eight students answered to the roll call of the Freshman Class. Freshmen are always green. Yes, and we certainly played our part in making this statement true. Miss Sue Brewer, Miss Virginia Barker, Miss Mary Moffitt, and Miss Mabel Robertson were our homeroom teachers.

OCTOBER

The Freshman Initiation was "loads of fun"—even we thought so. We wore our clothing wrong side out, and grew accustomed, by this time, to being addressed as "Rats" by the higher classmen.

NOVEMBER

We finally settled down to work and the different class officers were elected. Several of our classmates went out for basketball, while others joined the various clubs. We now felt just a little more worthy of being called a part of the high school.

DECEMBER

How short the months had been! They never passed away so quickly before, and there it was time for our Christmas holidays. Everyone was the same old way—just running over with the Christmas Spirit.

JANUARY

We were all glad to get back to school after a two weeks' vacation, and we began the new year. Soon we took our Mid-term Examinations, which were different from any we had ever taken before; yet I think most of us found they were rather easy, and different from what we had expected them to be.

FEBRUARY

We were "grown up" now, so away went the valentine box, in which we had found so much fun previously. Instead we settled down for a second semester of work.

MARCH

Our schedules were changed and the school day cut down to five periods instead of six. Once again there was confusion among us, as there was the first of the year, in changing classes.

APRIL

The Junior Class sponsored the Sample Bazaar, and Freshmen added a touch to it by presenting a pantomime. We also made several posters and bulletins to advertise this event.

MAY

Our final examinations were taken, and then almost four months of vacation awaited us. How good that sounded, yet somehow—well, we really were enjoying our high school life.

1938-1939

SEPTEMBER

When the bell rang to begin the school year of 1938 and 1939, one hundred and eight of us entered the Sophomore Class. It seemed very, very good to be called something besides Freshmen. In fact, it seemed so good that we considered it an honor, and played a large part in making fun of the Freshmen.

OCTOBER

Our Sophomore advisors were Mr. Marshall Cox, Mrs. J. G. Prevette, and Miss Eleanor Willoughby. Our class chairmen were Lu Ellen Routh, Tyler Lisk, and George Creech. We did not have so much trouble in finding our class rooms as we had had the year before, and it did not take us so long to settle down to work.

NOVEMBER

Football was the main sport along now, though basketball practice started, and there were again several representatives from our class. We reorganized the different clubs, including several new ones. All of us were quite interested in our school activities.

DECEMBER

A whole two weeks' holiday! "Christmas comes but once a year, and so we all made good cheer." We really didn't know just how good had been the cheer until examinations came the next month. . .

JANUARY

. . . And here we were greeted by Mid-term Examinations. We tried to do our best, nevertheless, and found that they were not so hard to conquer.

FEBRUARY

The basketball season was in full swing, and by this time not a single new year's resolution that we had made was left unbroken.

MARCH

Baseball took the place of basketball, and several members of our class took part in the sport. The days were growing longer and it certainly was good to know that spring was just around the corner.

APRIL

Things were running along smoothly now, with just one more month of school. Still there were those final exams to be thinking about.

MAY

Once again we parted from our classmates for the summer. This had been another happy school year, and we were looking forward to the next one.

Class Diary

1939-1940

SEPTEMBER

At the beginning of the Junior year, our number had dropped to one hundred. Our class advisors were Miss Cornelia Ayers, Miss Eleanor Willoughby, and Mr. James Schreyer. Scott Jennings was our class president; Sara Redding, vice-president; Jean Blalock, secretary; and Marjorie Hill, treasurer.

OCTOBER

The first thing that entered our minds was the big event we had been looking forward to for so long, the Junior-Senior Reception. We began thinking of different ways and means of financing this affair, and found that it was not such an easy task as one might think.

NOVEMBER

Seven members of our class received invitations to become members of our chapter of the National Beta Club. They were: Marjorie Hill, Margaret Paisley, Pauline Hancock, Edith Morgan, Earnestine Mabe, Jewel Kearns, and Lucille Trogdon. Football was well underway at this time and the basketball season had opened.

DECEMBER

Almost half the year was over; and although we had sponsored several plays for the school, we were not making a very good headway in acquiring that much needed bank account for our Junior-Senior Reception.

JANUARY

Those Mid-term Examinations rolled around once again. This time they seemed more important than they had been before, for all of us were hoping to be Seniors the next year.

FEBRUARY

We had several unexpected vacations this month because of snow. Believe it or not, we were really anxious to get back to school. In fact, there was much to be done, and not very much time to do it in. So we were glad when the big snow melted and school reopened.

MARCH

This was when the disputed and arguments just about reached their peak. We could never agree on anything suggested for our Junior-Senior Reception, and our class meetings never had very good results. The Seniors were probably getting afraid that they were not going to be given a reception.

APRIL

Some way—but please don't ask me how—we managed to have our reception the fifth of April. As everything else about this time was "Gone With The Wind", we used this theme in carrying out our decorations and entertainment. All present seemed to enjoy themselves so well that the work and worrying in preparing for this occasion was completely forgotten.

MAY

Last minute touches were being put here and there. We were to play an important part in the commencement exercises this year. The Junior Marshals were: Fred Kearns, Lu Ellen Routh, Wescott Moser, Marjorie Hill, MacDonald King, Willys Hooper, and Jean Blalock. The Junior girls gave a flag drill and sang two songs on Senior Class Night.

1940-1941

SEPTEMBER

Our Senior Class was one of the largest in the history of the school. We set out with eighty-four members. Our class officers were Wescott Moser, president; MacDonald King, vice-president; Pauline Hancock, secretary; and Mabel King, treasurer. Miss Massa Lambert and Miss Virginia Barker were our class advisors.

OCTOBER

One of our first class meetings was for the purpose of selecting our rings. It did not take us long to decide on the kind we wanted, although we had been looking forward to selecting them for almost eleven years. We could hardly believe that we were really getting our class rings.

NOVEMBER

Five members of our class were taken into the Beta Club—Louise Dorsett, Frances Copple, Virginia Lee Allred, Lucy Leigh Lowdermilk, and Margaret Alexander. We enjoyed the football games, and everyone seemed to be interested in the different school activities.

DECEMBER

Our rings finally came. How good it seemed to show them to our different friends. We were all happy and excited over them. This helped to make our two weeks' Christmas holidays even more cheerful. The Journalistic Club had now started publishing a school paper, Ash-Hi-Chat, which everyone enjoyed reading. Lucy Leigh Lowdermilk was editor-in-chief.

JANUARY

The Annual Staff began working very hard. Pictures were taken of the various clubs, classes, and other school groups. Examinations also came this month; if we didn't pass these, we were really "sunk".

FEBRUARY

Our class superlatives were chosen and the different committees were appointed. Our class meetings became noted for their noise and little accomplishment. Basketball games were very amusing, as we were having some close scores along now.

MARCH

Spring was here at last. Baseball took its turn in the school sports, and furnished us much fun. We began thinking about our Senior Play, which was to be given soon. We realized that our high school days were about over.

APRIL

The Junior Class gave us the Junior-Senior Reception. Saying that everyone enjoyed it would not begin to tell you what a delightful time we had. We also had several other entertainments which were "lots of fun".

MAY

What a funny feeling we have during these closing days. Even with the arrival of those long-awaited caps and gowns, we are a little sad at the thought of leaving school. Of course, we cannot leave without giving our best wishes to all of our schoolmates and the faculty members, and we wish to think them for what they have done for us. Now the hand of time beckons, and we enter "Fresh fields and pastures new".

Just Imagine!

Dear Margaret.

5/13/41

Don't ever forget our good times all the way through our school years. But I think our Senior Class is the best. We have had lots of good times this year. Our Jr. Senior and H. M. D. ... Rather funny how D. D. happened to me but I'm glad it did.

Our good times haven't ended even though school has. It will not be so long now we will all be at old W. C. U. and all looking forward to that and how. And then the coming Friday we will have books because school is over. Oh, just one sign that we have been. You are a sweet wonderful lovable girl. I could just go on and on but I hope nothing ever comes between us. I hope that happiness and success is with you always because you deserve it.

Always a faithful friend,

Jimmie

Dear Margaret,

Well Margaret we have been through many days of school together and I shall never forget them. We have really had some rotten ones too but they were right much fun too! I shall never forget "dear" French and you. We have really had some swell times together too and have also been to some dull places (R) but there were some cute things there anyway.

I hope in the years to come that our friendship will not sever (spelt wrong) I think you are one of the swellest girls I've ever known and I think a lot of you. I also know that you are one of the smartest (also). Don't take me seriously. I didn't mean the last part.

Here hoping that you will have the best of everything in years to come— Staunton included. You lucky dog!

I think that's enough to say so I'll close with "j'aime vous" maipui

Margaret:

I have enjoyed our high school days together, and hope you all the success life can give.

Nellie Brown

Dear Margaret,

Our eleven years of school together are at last at an end. We have had a "lot" of good times together which I am sure that neither you nor I will ever forget. Always remember our "dear, darling" French classes, and what a time we did have ~~it~~ with those awful chemistry experiments. We usually had them right at the end, but the beginning was certainly nothing to brag about. I know you won't forget those slow, dull English classes, how could you.? How could anybody.?!!

Margaret, don't ever forget I had a hand-shake in A.M.A. even though it turned out real good for you, and I got left out altogether. It was a lot of fun while it lasted, tho', wasn't it.?

I shall miss being with you so much in the coming years, but I know that our friendship will last forever.

Love,
Lucy Leigh

P.S. This annual turned out pretty good, even if we did have an awful time during the making of it, didn't it.?

I will never forget how shocked Mr. Keller was when he found that it was dedicated to him.

L. L. L.

Asheboro, North Carolina

Dear Blondy:

May all the happiness and success be yours in the future. Don't forget the 4th period Study Hall. Remember our "Dance" ~~Party~~" at the gym. I hope you won't be so "Silly" in the future.

Just an "ENEMY"
R.E. MOFFITT

Dear Margaret,

I wish you all the happiness and success that is possible for such a _____ thing to have. Don't forget the dances we have had at the gym and the fun at school.

always a friend,
Becky Morgan

Margaret, the good times we've had and remember the good times we've had and may you keep on having better ones. May you get the best of everything which you deserve. You're one of the nicest girls I have ever known. Georg W.

JUST A FRIENDLY "ENEMY"

Dear Margaret,

I hope you have all the happiness and luck in the world. May success always be yours.

always a friend,
"Frankie" Stud

Dear Shorty,
I hope you have lots of happiness and success in the future. You are such a swell dancer I will miss you. Keep your eyes open for some more.

Sherman M.

Margaret if it hadn't been for me I don't expect I would be writing in this book if you get what I mean.

Yours Truly
